Approved To Recease 2009RTaggregate Approved To Recease CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY INFORMATION REPORT  COUNTRY India/China/Tibet  No. Of FAGES 1  NO. OF F	CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION R  COUNTRY India/China/Tibet  SUBJECT Bhutan-India Relations/Tibet Routes	AGENCY REPORT	DATE DISTR. 7  NO. OF PAGES 1  NO. OF ENCLS. (LISTED BELOW)  SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.
X1X 1. India places great suphasis on the need for a friendly Bhutan. Almost daily the Indian Government expresses its friendship and allows no action which may cause Bhutan the slightest trouble. Its concern is obviously the protection a friendly Bhutan, a key border state, can give India's northeast frontier. Bhutan is also desirous of friendly relations with India, not so much because it realizes its dependency on India for trade and communication with the cause it realizes its dependency on India for trade and communication with the cause it realizes of Bhutan is also desirous of the common the trade in the chinese Communist control of Tibet has caused India to work harder than Bhutan in establishing closer ties between the two.  2. The ethnic boundaries of Bhutan were almost completely established by the 1949 Bhutan-India Treaty which gave to Bhutan 22 square miles of Indian territory. There does not exist any sizeable areas outside the 1953 Bhutan boundaries which are ethnically Bhutanese. However, India, in its eagerness to keep Bhutan friendly, could possibly cede for ethnic reasons very small parts adjacent to Bhutan. Exactly which parts would be involved could be determined only when negotiations to that end begin.  3. Leading the Sikang to Ihasa route motorable and building necessary bridges along the way. They are proceeding with this work at a feverish pace. They are also working, though not so hard, on a road from Sikang to Asam. They are not building a road from Ihasa to Bikkin news of read construction in Tibet other than the two they have mentioned is merely Chinese Communist propaganda.	COUNTRY India/China/Tibet  (1) BJECT Bhutan-India Relations/Tibet Routes  This occurry contains information affective the marions of the second of the contains of the second of the		NO. OF ENCLS. (LISTED BLIOW)  SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.
A Manual State Bhutan-India Relations/Tibet Routes  No. OF PAGES 1  No. OF ENCLS.  SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INF	THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE MAYIONAL DIFFERENCE OF THE UNITED STATES, WITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18, EXCTIONS 793 AND 7944. OF THE U.S. COOSE. AS AMERICA. ITS THANKINGSION OF EXVE	THIS IS U	NO. OF ENCLS. (LISTED BLIOW)  SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.
X1X 1. India places great emphasis on the need for a friendly Bhutan. Almost daily the Indian Government expresses its friendship and allows no action which may cause Bhutan the slightest trouble. Its concern is obviously the protection a friendly Bhutan, a key border state, can give India's northeast frontier. Bhutan is also desirous of friendly relations with India, not so much because of a Communist threat from Tibet, but because it realizes its dependency on India for trade and communication with the outside world. the thinese Communist control of Tibet has caused India to work harder than Bhutan in establishing closer ties between the two.  2. The ethnic boundaries of Bhutan were almost completely established by the 1949 Bhutan-India Treaty which gave to Bhutan 32 square miles of Indian territory. There does not exist any sizeable areas cutside the 1953 Bhutan boundaries which are ethnically Bhutanese. However, India, in its sugerness to keep Bhutan friendly, could possibly cede for ethnic reasons very small parts adjacent to Bhutan. Exactly which parts would be involved could be determined only when negotiations to that end begin.  3. msking the Sikang to Ihasa route motorable and building necessary bridges along the way. They are proceeding with this work at a feverish pace. They are also working, though not so hard, on a road from Sikang to Assam. They are not building a roug from Lhasa to Sikkim news of road construction in Tibet other than the two they have mentioned is merely Chinese Communist propaganda.	THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE NATIONAL DIFFMSE OF THE UNITED STATES, WITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18, SECTIONS 793 AND 794, OF THE U.S. CODE. AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OR SEVELATION OF TITLE CHIEFS TO OR RECEIPT OF AND UNAUTHORIZED PRESSOR IS	THIS IS U	NO. OF ENCLS. (LISTED BELOW)  SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.	ATION
SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THE concern is obviously the protection a friendly Bhutan, a key border state, can give India's northeast frontier. Bhutan is also destrous of friendly relations with India, not so much because of a Communist threat from Thete, but because it realizes its dependency on India for trade and communisation with the outside vorial.  The othnic boundaries of Bhutan were almost completely established by the 1949 Bhutan-India Treaty which gave to Bhutan 32 square miles of Indian territory. There does not exist any sizeable areas outside the 1949 Bhutan boundaries which are estinatedly Bhutanes. However, India, in its eagerness to keep Bhutan friendly, could possibly cade for ethnic reasons very small parts adjacent to Bhutan. Exactly which parts would be involved could be determined only when negotiations to that end begin.  They are also working, though not so hard, on a road from Sikang to Assam. They are not building a road from Lhass to Sikkim news of road construction in Tibet other than the two they have mentioned is merely Chinese Communist propaganda.	OF THE UNITED STATES, WITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18, SECTIONS 793.  AND 7944 OF THE U.S. CODE, AS AMENDED, ITS TRANSMISSION OR REVE.  LATION OF ITS CONTENTS TO OR RECEIFT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS	THIS IS U	SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.	ATION
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  The Almost  The China Guerra is almost  The Almost  The Indian Government expresses it friendly Bhutane. However, India, in its eagerness to keep Bhutan friendly, could possibly cede for ethnic  The answer small parts adjacent to Bhutan. Exactly which parts would be involved could be determined only when negotiations to that end begin.  They are also working, though not so hard, on a road from Sikang to Assam.  They are not building a road from Linasa to Sikking  news of road construction in Tibet other than the two they have mentioned is merely Chinese Communist propaganda.	OF THE UNITED STATES, WITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18, SECTIONS 793.  AND 7944 OF THE U.S. CODE, AS AMENDED, ITS TRANSMISSION OR REVE.  LATION OF ITS CONTENTS TO OR RECEIFT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS	THIS IS U	REPORT NO.	ATION
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  This is unevaluated in the state of t	OF THE UNITED STATES, WITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18, SECTIONS 793.  AND 7944 OF THE U.S. CODE, AS AMENDED, ITS TRANSMISSION OR REVE.  LATION OF ITS CONTENTS TO OR RECEIFT BY AN UNANIMORIZED PERSON IS	THIS IS U	INEVALUATED INFORMA	ATION
India places great emphasis on the need for a friendly Bhutan. Almost daily the Indian Government expresses its friendship and allows no action which may cause Bhutan the slightest trouble. Its concern is obviously the protection a friendly Bhutan, a key border state, can give India's northeast frontier. Bhutan is also desirous of friendly relations with India, not so much because of a Communist threat from Tibet, but because it realizes its dependency on India for trade and communication with the outside world the Chinese Communist control of Tibet has caused India to work harder than Bhutan in establishing closer ties between the two.  2. The ethnic boundaries of Bhutan were almost completely established by the 1949 Bhutan-India Treaty which gave to Bhutan 32 square miles of Indian territory. There does not exist any sizeable areas outside the 1953 Bhutan boundaries which are ethnically Bhutanese. However, India, in its eagerness to keep Bhutan friendly, could possibly cede for ethnic reasons very small parts adjacent to Bhutan. Exactly which parts would be involved could be determined only when negotiations to that end begin.  3 the Chinese were making the Sikang to Ihasa route motorable and building necessary bridges along the way. They are proceeding with this work at a feverish pace. They are also working, though not so hard, on a road from Sikang to Assam. They are not building a road from Lhasa to Sikkim near of the Chinese Communist propaganda.	AND 794, OF THE U.S. CODE, AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OR REVE-	THIS IS U	THEYALUATED INFORMA daily the Indian Government expresses its friendship and allows no action which may cause Bhutan the slightest trouble. Its concern is obviously the protection a friendly Bhutan, a key border state, can give India's northeast frontier. Bhutan is also desirous of friendly relations with India, not so much because of a Communist threat from Tibet, but because it realizes its dependency on India for trade and communication with the outside world the Chinese Communist control of Tibet has caused India to work harder than Bhutan in establishing closer ties between the two.  2. The ethnic boundaries of Bhutan were almost completely established by the 1949 Bhutan-India Treaty which gave to Bhutan 32 square miles of Indian territory. There does not exist any sizeable areas outside the 1953 Bhutan boundaries which are ethnically Bhutanese. However, India, in its eagerness to keep Bhutan friendly, could possibly code for ethnic reasons very small parts adjacent to Bhutan. Exactly which parts would be involved could be determined only when negotiations to that end begin.  3 the Chinese were making the Sikang to Lhasa route motorable and building necessary bridges along the way. They are proceeding with this work at a feverish pace. They are also working, though not so hard, on a road from Sikang to Assam. They are not building a road from Lhasa to Sikkim news of road construction in Tibet other than the two they have mentioned is merely Chinese Communist propaganda.
1953 Bhutan boundaries which are ethnically Bhutanese. However, India, in its eagerness to keep Bhutan friendly, could possibly cede for ethnic reasons very small parts adjacent to Bhutan. Exactly which parts would be involved could be determined only when negotiations to that end begin.  3.	it realizes its dependency on India for to cutside world the Chinese Comcaused India to work harder than Bhutan is between the two.  2. The ethnic boundaries of Bhutan were almothe 1949 Bhutan-India Treaty which gave to	trade and communist cont in establish ost complete to Bhutan 32	mmunication with the rol of Tibet has ding closer ties by established by square miles of	e e
making the Sikang to Lhasa route motorable and building necessary bridges along the way. They are proceeding with this work at a feverish pace.  They are also working, though not so hard, on a road from Sikang to Assam.  They are not building a road from Lhasa to Sikkim  news of road construction in Tibet other than the two they have mentioned is merely Chinese Communist propaganda.	1953 Bhutan boundaries which are ethnical in its eagerness to keep Bhutan friendly, reasons very small parts adjacent to Bhut	lly Bhutanes , could poss tan. Exactl	<ul> <li>However, India, ibly cede for ethni y which parts would</li> </ul>
- end -	making the Sikang to Lhasa route motorable along the way. They are proceeding with They are also working, though not so hard They are not building a road from Lhasa to news of road construction in Tibet other	this work and, on a road to Sikkim	ing necessary bridg t a feverish pace. from Sikang to Ass	es 25 am.
	→ end -			